Orchestra

We're for music

“Unless you grow up in a capital city, it is difficult to learn from full-time, professional musicians and experience live classical music. So bringing the joy of music and specialised learning to regional communities is critical for future generations and is very fulfilling for QSO players. I personally thank QSO donors who help make it possible for us to reach regional students and audiences.”

Lauren Manuel, QSO French horn

Queensland Symphony Orchestra is calling for all passionate patrons and friends of the orchestra to support Encore, our Annual Giving Program.

Please play your part in our orchestra as your donation is critical to help QSO:

- inspire regional Queensland communities with the magic of music
- develop the musical abilities of toddlers, students and music teachers
- engage the finest Australian and international artists
- nurture the continuation of the musical art form by commissioning new works
- achieve artistic brilliance with the purchase of new instruments
