Brisbane 'Air Heads' Rock Out with Air Supply & The Queensland Orchestra

Brisbane 'Air Heads' were Lost in Love over the weekend when rock legends, Graham Russell and Russell Hitchcock of Air Supply joined The Queensland Orchestra in a once-only, exhilarating performance of some of their greatest hits of the 1970's, 80's and today.

The singer and the song of Air Supply were greeted by over 2,500 adoring fans; all eager to see the duo in the flesh, performing songs that once ruled the charts and (still) their hearts, supported by the celebrated Queensland Orchestra.

The Air Supply pair, whose enduring success has earned them a prestigious place in pop music history, were at one point, mobbed by screaming women as they sang their way through the crowd.

"The concert was fantastic... I loved it," said one fan who travelled from the Gold Coast to see the performance.

Supported by the symphonic sounds of The Queensland Orchestra, the hits were better than ever; loud, energetic and uplifting. Dramatic outfits, stories of the years gone by and a full light-show completed this ultimate rock n roll show.

Bringing fans back to the year 2009, Graham invited his 5-year-old grandson Duncan to join him on stage while giving an intimate performance of a recent composition, 'The River'; a song about the twists and turns of life.

All Out of Love, Air Supply left their Brisbane fans with sentiments of elation and gratitude; encouraging all to go to a performance by The Queensland Orchestra in the near future, who they said were an incredible group of musicians to work with.

Air Supply will continue their Australian tour with performances in Sydney and Perth this week.
